

Some days ago the San Francisco Bulletin printed a dispatch from Washington, intimating very pointedly that the House Committee was bribed to defeat an investigation of the Central Pacific Contract and Finance Company's affairs. The dispatch was, of course, manufactured for the purpose of intimidating the Committee, by J. W. SIMONSON, agent of the Associated Press, and part owner of the Bulletin and Call. That it is false in every particular we presume even Mr. LUTTRELL and other uncompromising opponents of the railroad company will not pretend to deny. There is perhaps, not even the shadow of truth in the report, and no one is more thoroughly conscious of its falsity than the man who set it afloat. The general reader has noticed the Associated Press dispatches are always antagonistic to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, but it is not everyone that understands the motive which prompts this antagonism. It is this: The railroad telegraph lines destroyed the news monopoly so long held by the Associated Press. The Pacific Coast Associated Press is composed of the San Francisco Bulletin and Call and the Sacramento Union. These three papers are the bitter enemies of the Central Pacific Railroad Company. But for the telegraph lines built by that company, these three papers would have a monopoly of Eastern telegraphic news, and no other journal on the Pacific coast could or would obtain a line or word of Eastern report until after it had appeared in their columns. This monopoly was worth thousands of dollars per month to Messrs. FITCH, PICKERING, SIMONSON, MORRILL and ANTHONY. The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company using the railroad wires have practically destroyed the Associated Press monopoly, and not only furnish other journals with fresh news, but have caused a reduction of one-half in the subscription price of the old monopoly papers. It is the venom engendered through Mr. SIMONSON's hatred of the opposition telegraph line that colors and prejudices his dispatches against the Central Pacific Railroad Company. If Governor STANFORD would refuse to allow the use of his wires for the transmission of news dispatches or lease his lines to the Western Union, the Associated Press would have nothing to say against the Central people, and the three papers we have named would soon forget all about the Contract and Finance frauds.

Will Forests Produce Rain?

By a process of reasoning, which, while it is somewhat vague, is yet, we presume, entirely scientific, philosophers demonstrate that the cultivation of forests is an effective means of producing rain. The reason why this is, thus is reached through an elaborate argument in which is set forth the action of heat and cold, evaporation and condensation, all of which we shall neither accept nor deny, but simply assume that if science and philosophy are not at fault, Los Angeles Valley will, in a few years, be favored with weekly, perhaps daily showers. Already, for several miles around the city, there is an almost continuous grove of semi-tropical trees, and for miles still farther the young trees which shall extend this forest are already growing. Standing on the high ground to the northeast of the city, one sees to the southeast, south, and southwest, a dense growth of orange, lemon, lime, and walnut trees. Many of these trees are twenty years old, and but few of them are less than ten years of age. The groves are spreading out over the valley so rapidly, we can predict that within the next decade the forest of trees will be continuous for ten or fifteen miles around the valley sides of the city. If forests will produce rain, and we repeat the philosophers say they will, this valley will, in time, be blessed with frequent and copious showers.

The question as to whether or not there is an open sea around the north pole is once more attracting attention. It occurs to us that the peculiarity of a place which no one can reach is of very little consequence to anyone. The north pole may be set up in a sea of nectar, with a beach of golden sands surrounded by diamond mountains, in which rise rivers of champagne. What of it? MARCONI's heaven is a better place still, but as we cannot reach either locality, the good things they possess may as well not exist, so far as we are concerned. For all practical purposes, we had rather find a gold mine in a California hill than to have it set up as strong as proof of Holy Writ that there is an open sea around the north pole.

NAPOLÉON'S continued popularity is attributed to the fact that military glory makes a strong impression on the common mind and lasts longer than any other kind of fame. It is this which makes GRANT a strong man to-day—much stronger than his opponents are willing to concede.

JEFFERSON DAVIS, who has been on a visit to Europe, reached New York on the 14th inst., and left the same evening for his home in Tennessee.

The Court House a Market House.

The Court house in this city was built for a market, and, for the credit of the city and county, it is a pity it was not always used for that purpose. It looks like a market house, and everybody knows a market house does not and should not look like a Court house. This county can afford a better and better-looking Court house, and the city ought to have just such a market house as the Court house would make. It would indicate progress and improvement if the county would sell its share of the Court house to the city, and the city and county build a Court house that would be a credit to Los Angeles valley. The city could convert the first floor of the present Court house into a market house and rent the floor above for whatever it is best adapted. Sooner or later, a new Court house must be built, and the day is not far distant when Los Angeles will require a regular market place. If the market is built before the new Court house, it will be difficult to convert the old building into cash or anything useful. The City Library might find a local habitation and a name in the new Court house building. However, the details we leave to those who know how to arrange these things. We only urge the fact that we need a market and a new Court house.

A Health Officer.

At the last meeting of the Common Council, Mr. HUBER moved that a Health Officer be appointed to look after the sanitary condition of the city during the summer months, and after a brief discussion the motion was withdrawn. We differ decidedly with the majority of our City Fathers. We think the motion was passed over too lightly. The expense of such an officer was a consideration named against the measure. We do not think that there is danger of any prevailing disease here, but Los Angeles is a city of about thirteen thousand people, and our cosmopolitan population, together with the great number of arrivals from almost all parts of the world, certainly are reasons sufficient to demand some precaution on the part of our city authorities, especially at this time—at the commencement of our long warm, dry season. The trifling expense is no consideration compared with the benefits resulting from the efficient labors of the right man in such a place, in case the sanitary condition of our city should not remain as good as heretofore. We think it would have been wiser to have placed some competent physician in a position to look after the sewerage, the cleanliness of the streets and alleys, etc. We think the people generally would ratify such a step and thank the Common Council for such action.

SEVERAL San Francisco papers are urging the people to donate means to assist the poor of England. This is all very well, but charity ought to begin at home. While we can point to starving communities in our own land, we need not send money to those of other nations. England is abundantly able to feed her own poor, and while we have so many thousands of people actually starving to death in Louisiana, we had better succor them than to send our money to the needy of a foreign nation. Actual destitution prevails within one of our own States. Let us remove that before we go abroad with our charity.

THE Senate Committee has reported an amendment to the Postal Appropriation bill which provides that postage shall hereafter be prepaid on all available matter at the time of mailing. Unless this amendment is stricken out or so changed that it will not take effect until one year after its passage, newspapers taking subscriptions by the year will be compelled to prepay the postage on their entire edition, even if they have made a contract to the effect that subscribers should pay their own postage. The effect of this law will be to cause publishers the loss of small fortunes in stamps.

THE House voted down LUTTRELL's amendment to the naval appropriation bill prohibiting the employment of Chinese on the Government works at Mare Island. At the next election these same people will tell the workmen how strongly they are opposed to Chinese immigration and Chinese labor. This world is terribly addicted to humbuggery.

THE people of this valley are now fairly engaged in harvesting. Every farmer has all he can attend to; farm hands are scarce and the demand for laborers is great. If an able-bodied man wants work, all he need do to find it is to go out among the farmers. Good men will receive good wages almost anywhere in the valley.

A CORRESPONDENCE from President GRANT and Senator JONES is published. The letters are brief, but they do not possess the soul of wit, nor are they the embodiment of wisdom.

A case of maulen Christianity was developed at Stockton, on Sunday, where a street-preacher named Little, being assaulted by one of his auditors, fulfilled the scriptural injunction, "When a man strikes thee on thy right cheek turn to him the other also." The preacher effectively quieted his antagonist by placing him hors de combat, and then continued his address.

Tweed Put in an Appearance.
NEW YORK, June 19.—There was considerable excitement in the County Court this morning by the appearance of Wm. M. Tweed, who was subpoenaed as a witness. He was dressed as in old times, in a dark suit with white neck-tie. He is much thinner than formerly, and his face bears evident traces of mental anxiety.

A Blow at Sutrö—No Investigation of the Contract and Finance Company.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Senate Committee on Public Lands to-day reported adversely on Pratt's mining patent. Sprague, Tipton and Pratt made a minority report, favoring the bill on general grounds, but making no allusion to Sutrö, in whose interests it is universally understood to have been made.

Hot Weather—Irrigating Ditches—Los by Fire.

PHOENIX, June 17.—Work has been commenced again on the dam in the river. As nearly everybody is busily engaged cutting grain, but a small force of men are at work. In the meantime the ditches are entirely dry and those who are not fortunate enough to possess wells are compelled to haul water from the river. A number of the trees are commencing to die. The town presents a dry appearance.

PRESIDENT, June 17.—The fire yesterday was more disastrous than at first reported. The Minor building was only saved by strenuous efforts. The presses, type, etc., were moved by the citizens and scattered about the streets in a very promiscuous manner. Nearly every case of type belonging to the office was "piled." It will be some time before the Minor will be able to resume regular publication. Meantime, by the courtesy of the military authorities, an extra will be published every afternoon, giving the latest telegrams.

Hiberle was bound over to appear before the Grand Jury, and the cases of Fusherae and Genaud were continued until Tuesday next, at 2 P. M. They are subject to fine and imprisonment and they will be made to pay heavy penalties if apprehended.

The stockholders of the Co-operative Nursery and Fruit Company of Los Angeles held a meeting at Judge Thompson's office yesterday, and adopted a code of by-laws for the government of the company. Over $200,000 of the capital stock is already taken.

We do not wonder that men sometimes commit felo de se, but for a sober-minded animal like a horse to have suicidal tendencies, is odd indeed. Officer Thomas has a fine colt, valued at one hundred dollars, which has come very near ending its life by its own act on two several occasions within the past few days. The animal is gentle enough on most occasions, and will even follow its master around like a pet dog when turned loose in a field, but it cannot abide the bridle or halter, and last Thursday, when hitched to a gate-post, reared up and fell upon a large spike which projected from the post, tearing a most fearful gash in its side. After the wound had been dressed and properly sewed up, and while again hitched for a few moments, the animal reared up a second time and fell across a fence, breaking a board and running one of the broken ends into the former wound. It is a matter of uncertainty whether the colt will live or die, but since it seems so eager to shuffle off its mortal coil, some member of the Society with long name ought to knock it in head.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Results of Last Week's Examinations.

Promotions.

Dr. Lucky furnishes us with a full list of the pupils of the public schools who passed their examinations last week. Knowing how anxiously these results have been looked for, and how eagerly they will be read by the scholars, their parents and friends, we offer no apology for occupying so much space with matter which will not be of interest to the casual reader. Much disappointment and much joy will be imparted to many young hearts by the following lists; those who are here enrolled should take encouragement and study to maintain their good standing during the coming year, and those whose names are left from the roll of honor must not be discouraged, but work the harder to retrieve their lost ground. ## The Celebration.

The Executive Committee of the Fourth of July celebration met at the County Court room last night, to receive the reports of sub-committees.

Col. Peel took the Chair, and Mr. Ayers was chosen Secretary pro tem.

A report from the Literary Committee was presented, with nominations as follows: Rev. W. H. Hill, Chaplain; S. H. Butterfield, Reader; R. J. Hudson, Orator, and A. T. Hawley, Poet.

On motion, the report was adopted. Mr. Hazard moved that all vacancies occurring in any committee be filled by the remaining members. Carried.

The subject of place for holding the exercises was quite thoroughly discussed, and Turner's Hall suggested as the most suitable place.

The President of the Turn-Verein Society being present, stated that he thought their hall could be had free of expense.

Mr. Miles moved that the Secretary be instructed to publish notices in the papers to parties and societies through the country who may wish to participate in the celebration, stating that they will be welcomed by the Citizens' Committee and assisted in making their arrangements for parade. Carried.

Mr. Meyer moved that a committee of three be appointed to solicit subscriptions and that their names be published in the papers as authorized to receive moneys for the purposes of the celebration. Carried. Mr. I. W. Lord, H. Hazard and E. H. Workman were appointed such committee. On motion the number was increased to four and Mr. J. J. Corilla added.

Mr. Miles moved that Judge Thompson be appointed President of Ceremonies. Carried.

Mr. Brierly stated that General Bouton, who was appointed Grand Marshal at the last meeting, would not be present until Wednesday or Thursday next, on account of sickness in his family, and moved that the vote be reconsidered. Carried.

Mr. Miles was nominated for the position, but declined. Mr. Ross was then nominated and elected Grand Marshal of the day.

The chair, on motion, then appointed the following citizens of neighboring towns as members of the Executive Committee: Wilmington, Norman C. Jones; Concord, J. E. McGowan; Florence, Josiah Russell; La Bolla, F. Machado; Mission, J. R. Shorb; El Monte, Asa Ellis; Anaheim, Richard Helman; Spadra, Geo. Egan; Westminster, Dr. McCoy; Orange, Mr. Spurgeon; Tustin City, E. R. Nichols; Los Nietos, Judge Ryan; Old Los Nietos, Francisco Ramirez; San Fernando, Andres Pico; San Juan, Dick Eagan.

Adjourned until next Tuesday evening, when all of the sub-committees are requested to meet the Executive Committee.

About Military Companies.

EDITOR HERALD:—In your local column of to-day I notice the question, "Why not have another military company?" The writer would like to see another Company formed, as it would cause competition in drills and that proficiency pertaining to the duties of a soldier, so requisite among militia men (who are not under strict military discipline). In answer to the latter part of the item above referred to, I would state that you are in error in regard to the company now formed. The aggregate strength of a company of infantry allowed by the State of California is one hundred and twenty, and we are anxious to receive forty additional members, and will welcome any young man of good character to our ranks.

A MEMBER OF THE L. A. GUARDS.

A daily stage line is now run between Los Angeles and Santa Monica, by A. Ulyard. The stage leaves here at 7:30 A. M., calling at the principal hotels for passengers; and starts from Santa Monica to return at 3:30 P. M. Fare, one dollar.

PIPIFAX.

This remarkable curative herbal preparation is entirely unlike and greatly superior to any other preparation ever discovered.

It strengthens the living vital nervous principle, and gives energy to the muscles, nerves, filaments, membranes, and all tissues of the internal organs.

PIPIFAX—Keeps the skin in a supple condition; the cuticle pliant; the pores open; and brings the blood to the surface; thereby enabling the system to combat these baneful atmospheric influences.

PIPIFAX—Passes through the blood, carries off by perspiration and other excretions the effete and injurious materials of the body. It is soothing, alterative and degenerative. Used methodically and rationally, aided by suitable diet, it produces most important changes in the system, contributing to the reconstruction of tissues, and removes vitiated matter which has become not only useless but injurious. No other article has ever been introduced which combines in such an extraordinary degree the principles of an efficient antibilious agent and tonic. Try it and be convinced.
